
HS 505: Circularity in Modern European Literature

Course Code	HS 505
Course Name	Circularity in Modern European Literature
L-T-P-C	3-0-0-3
Intended for	Undergraduate students
Approval	54th BoA (May 2024)

Course Contents

- Introduction: Modern European Literature (8 hours)
 - Europe in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
 - Key concepts in literary theory.
 - The genealogy of linearity
- Ouroboros: On the concept of Circularity (8 hours)
 - Introduction to the concept of circularity in Western Philosophy.
 - Overview of the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche
- Circular Drama (10 hours)
 - August Strindberg's The Dance of Death
 - Eugene Ionesco's The Bald Soprano
 - Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot
 - Daniil Kharm's Elizabeth Bam
- Circular Prose (10 hours)
 - Daniil Kharms' The Knife
 - Jorge Luis Borges' The Circular Ruins
 - Cortazar The Continuity of the Parks
 - Maurice Blanchot The Madness of the Day.

Text Books

1. NA

References

1. Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez, Circular Narratives in Modern European Literature.
2. Arthur Danto, Nietzsche and Philosophy.