
HS 505: Circularity in Modern European Literature

Course Code : HS 505

Course Name : Circularity in Modern European Literature

L-T-P-C : 3-0-0-3

Intended for : Undergraduate students

Prerequisite :

Mutual Exclusion:

Approval: 54th BoA

Course Contents

- Introduction: Modern European Literature (8 hours)
 - Europe in the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
 - Key concepts in literary theory.
 - The genealogy of linearity
- Ouroboros: On the concept of Circularity (8 hours)
 - Introduction to the concept of circularity in Western Philosophy.
 - Overview of the philosophy of Friedrich Nietzsche
- Circular Drama (10 hours)
 - August Strindberg's The Dance of Death
 - Eugene Ionesco's The Bald Soprano
 - Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot
 - Daniil Kharm's Elizabeth Bam
- Circular Prose (10 hours)
 - Daniil Kharms' The Knife
 - Jorge Luis Borges' The Circular Ruins
 - Cortazar The Continuity of the Parks
 - Maurice Blanchot The Madness of the Day.

Textbooks:

1. NA

References:

1. Juan Luis Toribio Vazquez, Circular Narratives in Modern European Literature.
2. Arthur Danto, Nietzsche and Philosophy.